

Day 1: Vuelta Puerto Rico Official Route

Day 1 takes its participants through San Juan, Carolina, Loíza, Río Grande, Luquillo, Fajardo, Ceiba, Naguabo, Humacao, Yabucoa, Maunabo, Patillas, Arroyo, Guayama, Salinas, Santa Isabel, Juana Díaz, & Ponce.

The first day of La Vuelta is the longest and the most challenging. It begins in historic Old San Juan and heads east past some of the most popular beaches in Puerto Rico to the breakfast rest stop in Fajardo famous for its proximity to the El Yunque National Rain Forest and the Blue Flag beach of Luquillo. From there, you will continue eastbound riding through Naguabo, Humacao and Yabucoa where the road will climb to the top of Camino Nuevo. Take a moment at the top to enjoy the view before a fast descent to lunch at the Punta Tuna lighthouse in Maunabo.

Then it is a 60-mile spin to Ponce for dinner (on your own), dancing and/or a well-deserved night's rest.
